

Supporting University Museums and Collections

University Museums Group Executive Committee vacancies (voluntary)

The University Museums Group (UMG) seeks to fill three openings on the Executive Committee for new members, and to appoint a new Treasurer.

About the University Museums Group

UMG supports and advocates for the university museum sector in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Working alongside our sister organisation UMIS (University Museums in Scotland) we represent the interests of university museums to funders and stakeholders. We also maintain close links with the international body for university museums, UMAC.

UMG is a membership organisation, open to HE institutions with responsibility for museums, galleries or collections and individuals interested in furthering the work of UMG.

Further information available at: <http://universitymuseumsgroup.org/about/>

Executive Committee members

- attend meetings of the Committee (6 times per year)
- attend the Annual General Meeting, to account for the Executive Committee's work
- contribute to development and management of UMG business
- liaise with and assist members of the Executive Committee in their roles as
- necessary e.g. working groups, specific projects
- attend and represent UMG at sector events as and when agreed for specific activities or projects, and advise the Committee as appropriate
- actively promote and advocate for UMG

Key information

Elected Committee members may hold office for three years, and are eligible for re-election for one additional term of a maximum of three years.

Application process

Please submit your name, the name of a seconder, and a brief statement outlining why you wish to stand for election to the Committee and what you would bring to the UMG to the Secretary, Jo McPhee jm631@cam.ac.uk

Application closing date: Friday 30 August