

Butterflies Through Time:

Using wildlife of the past to guide conservation of the future

Evie Crouch, Matt Hayes (PhD)

What is the Butterflies through time project?

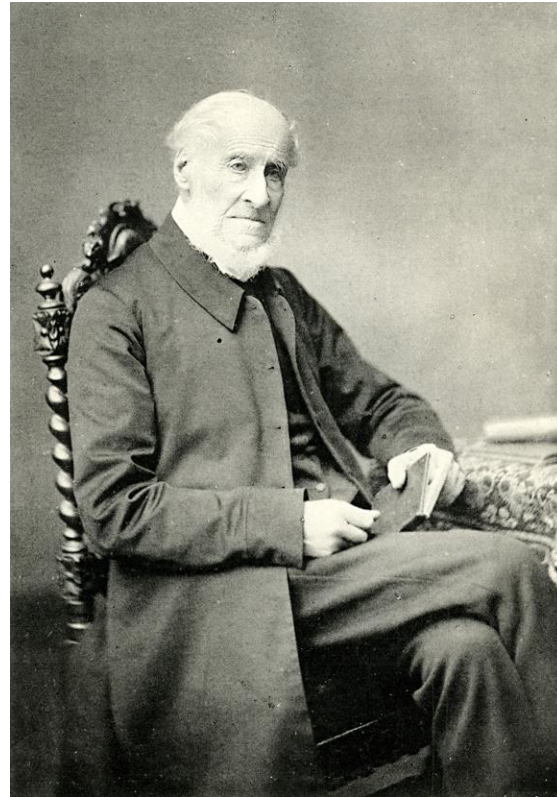

Photo reproduced by kind permission of the Syndics of Cambridge University Library

MUSEUMS ASSOCIATION

Esmée
Fairbairn
Collections
Fund

What is the Butterflies through time project?

What is the Butterfly through time project?

1. Catalogue Museum specimens
2. Public Engagement
3. Wildlife Conservation

1. Catalogue Specimens

2. Public Engagement

Z MUSEUM OF ZOOLOGY
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Free Entry

BUTTERFLIES THROUGH TIME

BUTTERFLIES THROUGH TIME:

Using wildlife of the past to guide conservation of the future

EXHIBITION
15 MARCH – 18 SEPTEMBER 2022

#ButterfliesThroughTime

www.museum.zoo.cam.ac.uk

Buzz in the Meadow

Mini-bioblitz

I like butterflies
because they are beautiful and as they go extinct it will lead for lots of beautiful flowers to go extinct.

Meet the Insects day

3. Wildlife Conservation

Wildlife Trust for Beds, Cambs & Northants

